Applying for a Zoning Variance

The Board of Adjustment is a board of five Murray City residents appointed by the Mayor with the advise and consent of the City Council.

Overview

Utah State Law requires all communities that have adopted zoning to adopt a Board of Adjustment to provide a process for relief of any injustice that may arise with the strict application of the land use ordinance. The Board of Adjustment is authorized to hear appeals of a Planning Commission decision. The Board of Adjustment shall review the record of the Planning Commission decision to determine whether that decision was so unreasonable as to be arbitrary and capricious, or stated differently, where there is substantial evidence in the record to support the Planning Commission's decision.

Under certain limited circumstances, the Board of Adjustment is authorized to "modify" the terms of the land use ordinance by granting a zoning variance. A variance is a modification of the terms of the land use ordinance in cases where the land use ordinance imposes an undue hardship on a property owner. By State Law, the Board of Adjustment may only grant a variance under the following circumstances:

- 1. The literal enforcement of the zoning ordinance would cause an unreasonable hardship for the applicant that is not necessary to carry out the general purpose of the land use ordinance. (The term "hardship: cannot be interpreted as personal or economic hardship. The hardship must be created by the land and not by a personal problem of the property owner. The hardship cannot be self-imposed or created by the current of past owner.)
- 2. There are special circumstances attached to the property that do not generally apply to other properties in the same district. (There must be some physical feature of the property that is unique to the site such as shape, topography, etc. that is preventing strict adherence to the ordinance).
- 3. Granting the variance is essential to the enjoyment of a substantial property right possessed by other properties in the same district. (There must be some characteristic of your property which is preventing you from enjoying a property right which others in your same neighborhood have.)

4. The variance will not substantially affect the general plan and will not be contrary to the public interest. (The proposed variance must be in conformance with the spirit of the Murray City General Plan. The Board of Adjustment may not grant use variances.)

5. The spirit of the zoning ordinance is observed and substantial justice is done. (Although not meeting the letter of the ordinance, a variance request must still meet the intent of the ordinance.)

Submittal Deadline:

Application for a variance or an appeal must be submitted to the Murray City Community Development Division, 4646 South 500 West by 10:00 a.m. at least three weeks prior to the scheduled meeting date of the Board of Adjustment.
